The role of the ESPGHAN European JPGN Editor is in collaboration with the NASPGHAN Editor to produce JPGN. This journal is produced monthly.

The European editorial team consists of the JPGN editor, a senior associate editor and 5 – 10 sub editors selected by the editor in consultation with council.

The Editor is assisted by the Managing Editor of ESPGHAN. The Managing Editor is responsible for all technical aspects and day to day activities within the journal and is appointed by ESPGHAN Council.

Required knowledge, qualification and experience of JPGN Editor

This role requires a very good command of spoken and written English.

Volunteer Commitment

The successful candidate is to attend one council meeting per year. However a report will need to be provided for the other council meetings, one of which is held at the Annual Meeting of ESPGHAN. The candidate is to also attend the Annual General Meeting, which again is held during the Annual Meeting.

The candidate is required to fulfil a position within the ESPGHAN Publication Committee, which acts in consultation with the NASPGHAN Publication Committee and meets twice a year, at the Annual Meetings of ESPGHAN and at a meeting with the publisher and the NASPGHAN Publication Committee.

The successful candidate will need to be able to commit a substantial amount of time for this position.

ESPGHAN will provide EUR 35.000,00 to cover honorarium for the Editor and the Editorial Board. Upon election, the Editor will have to provide an operational budget that includes all costs except for the Managing Editor salary.
