ARTICLE 5

The Association has five defined Membership categories with clearly defined criteria:

Full Member:

The applicant for full membership should have a significant track record in PGHN, and at least five years full time post-training experience/employment and may apply for full membership without the requirement of personally presenting a paper to the society. Only full members in good standing (i.e. having paid their dues) have voting rights at the Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Trainee Member:

Trainee members shall be members with less than ten years' experience in PGHN; trainee membership lasts up to five years; after that period, to remain in the Society, trainee members should apply for full membership. An age limit for applicants of forty years old will be applicable. Special dispensation will be given for applicants who began their training at a later stage.

AHP Member:

Allied Health Professional (AHP) Members shall be members of medically related professions allied to PGHN. This shall include, but not be limited to nurses, dietitians, researchers and another affiliated profession.

Corresponding Members:

Corresponding members shall be full members of other FISPUGHAN-related societies or non-European members not fulfilling the criteria of Full Membership, but actively involved in Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition.

Emeritus Members:

Emeritus members shall be members in good standing who have retired from active practice. They will be entitled to complimentary membership of the Society but will not have voting rights. Members may apply to become emeritus members in writing to the Secretary.

Proposals for all categories of membership should be made in writing to the General Secretary twice a year (exact deadlines are defined in the Rules & Regulations of the Society), supported in writing by a full or emeritus member who is not serving at that time on the Council. Each proposal shall be accompanied by the curriculum vitae and list of publications of the candidate.

Cessation of Membership

If a member's annual subscription lapses for three consecutive years, the question of continuation of membership will be decided by the Council.

A member whose conduct is prejudicial to the welfare, purpose or reputation of the Society can be excluded from the Society without explanation by decision of the membership at the AGM upon proposal by the Council.

Membership also ceases upon death or by written resignation to the General Secretary. Members who have resigned or who are excluded have no rights to any part of the Association's assets. Only the Association's assets may be used for obligations/commitments contracted in its name. Members have no personal liability.

ARTICLE 6

The Association shall include the following organs:

1. General Assembly,
2. Executive Committee,
3. Council,
4. Specialist Committees,
5. Working Groups and Special Interest Groups,
6. Task Forces.

ARTICLE 7

The Annual General Assembly (AGM) is the Association's supreme body and is comprised of the Association's members. It shall hold an annual assembly, held during the Annual Meeting of the Association. An extraordinary session can be convened at the request of the Council, or one-fifth of the members.

The AGM will be considered valid, regardless of the number of members present.

The AGM date and time will be announced to members, via the Association Newsletter, no less than six weeks before the meeting. The notification, including the proposed agenda, will be sent to members at least ten days before the date of the meeting.

ARTICLE 8

The General Assembly:

- Shall approve the admission of members;
- Approves the members of the Council via electronic, anonymous voting;
- Notes the contents of the Presidents report and financial statements for the year and votes on their adoption;
- Approves the annual budget;
- Decides on any modification of statutes (see below);
- Decides on the dissolution of the Association (see article 20);
- Fixes the annual membership fees.

Amendments to the Constitution must be proposed in writing to the General Secretary by any five members or by the Council not less than six months before the next AGM. The General Secretary will notify all members of the proposed amendments by the 7th of January prior to the next AGM. Any member may submit written counter-proposals, to the General Secretary, no later than the 1st of February the same year. The General Secretary will then present all members with the final proposed updated constitution not less than one month before the next AGM.

ARTICLE 9

The General Assembly is presided over by the President and General Secretary of the Association.

ARTICLE 10

Decisions of the General Assembly shall be taken by the majority vote of the members present (In cases of deadlock, the President shall have the casting vote) except in the following circumstances, where a two-thirds majority of those present will be required:

1. Alteration of the Constitution
2. The decision to dissolve the Society
3. Consideration of continuation of membership according to article

ARTICLE 11

Votes are by a show of hands or voting cards. Voting may also take place by secret ballot, if at least five members request it.

Council positions are for three years with no renewal of office, except in the case of extreme circumstances, whereby Council will vote on the continuation of respective roles.

A candidate for a council member position may (with his/her written consent) be proposed in writing, to the General Secretary, by any five members by the 7th of January prior to the next AGM, who are not serving at that time in the Council. If no candidate is proposed, the council may propose a candidate not less than three months before the AGM.

The election will be by electronic ballot of all full ESPGHAN members in good standing using a single transferable vote in the case of more than one candidate for each post. A simple majority of those that vote will be required and the result of the election will be announced at the Annual General Meeting. All council positions will run from AGM to AGM. For a period of three years following retirement a Council member will not be eligible for re-election in his/her former position.

ARTICLE 15

Council members work on a volunteer basis and as such can only be reimbursed for their actual expenses and travel costs. For activities beyond the usual function, each Council member is eligible for appropriate compensation.

ARTICLE 16

The functions of Council are:

- to take the appropriate measures to achieve the goals of the Association;
- to convene the ordinary and extraordinary General Assemblies;
- to take decisions with regard to admission of new members;
- to ensure that Statutes are applied, to draft rules and regulations, and to help administer the assets of the Association.

ARTICLE 17

The Association shall appoint an external auditor to check the operating and accounts of the association. The auditors will prepare a written and detailed report for presentation at the AGM.

ARTICLE 18

The Association is legally bound by the joint signature of the President and Treasurer of the Association.

ARTICLE 19

The financial year shall begin on the 1st of January and end on the 31st of December of each year.

ARTICLE 20

An Extraordinary General Assembly of the Society is required in order to dissolve the Society. A two-thirds majority of those present in favour will be required. Should the Association be dissolved, the available assets should be transferred to a non-profit organization pursuing public interest goals similar to those of the Association and likewise benefiting from tax exemption. Under no circumstances should the assets be returned to the founders or members. Nor should they use a part or a total of assets for their own benefit.

The present Statutes have been approved by the Constituent General Assembly of 7th June 2019 at the 52nd Annual Meeting of ESPGHAN, Glasgow, United Kingdom.
